Barbara Walters

Barbara Walters has arguably interviewed more statesmen and stars than any other journalist in history.

In September 2004, after 25 years as co-host and chief correspondent of ABC News' 20/20, Ms. Walters retired from the show to begin a new phase in her career at the network. She remains an active member of the news division and network, substantially increasing the number of primetime ABC News specials, in addition to her Barbara Walters Specials.

Ms. Walters joined ABC News in 1976 as the first woman to co-host the network news. Through the years she has interviewed such world figures as Russia's Boris Yeltsin, China's Premier Jiang Zemin, Great Britain's former Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher, Libya's Moammar Qaddafi and Iraq's President Sadaam Hussein. She was also the first American journalist to interview Russia's President Vladimir Putin and the first interview with President and Mrs. Bush following September 11.

She has interviewed every American President and First Lady since Richard Nixon. She made journalism history by arranging the first joint interview with Egypt's President Anwar Sadat and Israel's Prime Minister Menachem Begin in November, 1977. Another of her "firsts" was an hour-long primetime conversation with Cuban President Fidel Castro -- an interview which has been printed in half a dozen languages and shown all over the world.

The Barbara Walters Specials are continuously the top-rated specials of the year and have included such legends as Sir Laurence Olivier, Bing Crosby, John Wayne, Bette Davis and Audrey Hepburn. More recent interviews of superstars have included Julianne Moore, Nicholas Cage, Renee Zellweger, Matt Le Blanc, Diane Keaton and Billy Crystal.

Ms. Walters' is also co-owner, co-executive producer and co-host of The View, recipient of the 2003 Daytime Emmy Award for "Outstanding Talk Show."

Ms. Walters also recently released her bestselling memoir, Audition, to great critical acclaim. Over the years Ms. Walters has received national recognition for her work and has been the recipient of numerous prestigious honors and awards.
